South Dakota Retailers Association

The South Dakota Retailers Association is a 4,000 member statewide trade association representing all types of retail businesses. The Association was established in 1897 to represent retail interests in the legislative process, to provide money-saving member services, and to provide information and education.

Retail Prophet

Our regular newsletter, published six times annually. This publication features information regarding state and federal laws and regulations that impact retailers, an FAQ section, updates on trends, monthly sales tax reports, our training calendar, and more.

Circulation: 4,000

The Retail Prophet and Legislative Bulletins are mailed to all members who have requested a hard copy, as well as to state legislators and officials, other associations, and prospective members. Digital copies are emailed to all members.
